This survey is designed to explore the relationship between costume/fashion design inspiration and online pop culture fandom spaces. Specifically, this survey asks individuals who indicated in public online fandom spaces that they had created a costume or outfit to attend a concert about their inspiration, design, and construction processes.

Taking the survey will take approximately 10 minutes of your time. Completion and submission of this survey indicates voluntary consent to participate in this study. For information regarding your rights as a research participant, you may contact the Chair of the Institutional Review Board at (985)-549-2077.

Your responses as a participant will be kept anonymous using a Qualtrics survey that anonymizes your IP Address, location data, and contact information. Survey responses will be exported to a cloud based storage location that will not be shared with any other users. The information gained from this survey will only be reported as group data, at no time will your name or contact information be identified with any response. Your responses as a participant will be kept anonymous and confidential to the fullest possible extent.

You as the participant do not have to answer every question. Your participation is entirely voluntary. If you have any questions regarding this survey, please contact Professor Mona Jahani at (985)-549-2045
